

The Vancouver Achievement (book)

by John Punter. (2002) is a history of urban planning and design through the experience of Vancouver and the eyes of a European scholar. For anyone interested in the theory and practice of urban placemaking, this is an excellent resource.