The Department of Urban and Regional Planning at Cal Poly Pomona has announced the winners of the 2020 William R. and June Dale Prize for Excellence in Urban and Regional Planning. They are Dr. Petra Doan of Florida State University, who won the Scholar Prize, and Dr. Elizabeth “Libby” Tyler, APA California Northern Section’s Ethics Review Director. A member of APA’s Equity Diversity Inclusion Committee and a consulting planner, Libby won the Practitioner Prize. Each prize is $5,000.

Dale Prize events will be held March 4th and 5th, 2020, on the Cal Poly Pomona campus. They include colloquia and seminars aimed at creating dialogue among scholars and practitioners, and enriching the education of planning students.