

2021 Planning Leadership Academy, February 5

Co-hosted by the California Planning Roundtable and APA California

Friday, February 5, 2021, from 8:30-10:30 am

The California Planning Roundtable has launched the 2021 Leadership Academy.

Registration is now open until December 27, 2020.

This professional development program is targeted to mid-career professionals interested in leadership roles in their organizations. The program was developed to help planners make an impact by learning directly from fellow change-makers from across California who are advancing best practices and important causes and leading others through transformative changes.
