

Alameda County Planning Department - Planner I

The Planner I position is located in the Planning Department of the Community Development Agency in Hayward. Under supervision, incumbents are assigned less difficult planning and zoning projects and/or assist higher level staff members with more complex projects. Duties include: assists in conducting background studies for the general plan; preparing and assembling maps, charts, tables, and reports; conducts planning, zoning and environmental studies and research; assists in the reviewing, processing, investigating and evaluating development applications of various types. To apply, please see the complete position description here on the County website.

The Alameda County Community Development Agency's mission is to enhance the quality of life of Alameda County residents and plan for the future well-being of the County's diverse communities; to balance the physical, economic and social needs of County residents through land use planning, environmental management, neighborhood improvement, and community development, and to promote and protect agriculture, the environment, economic vitality and human health. To learn more about the Alameda County Community Development Agency, visit the website <https://www.acgov.org/cda/>