

- Conduct planning studies and analyses
- Review and act as Project Manager to process land use development applications of all types
- May serve as Environmental Coordinator administering the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and other technical environmental programs
- May serve as Project Leader and subject area specialist in Policy, Development Review and Environmental Administration
- May serve to review and recommend policy changes, resolve complex problems, review and analyze State laws and regulations and develop operating procedures in the Cannabis Licensing Office

Live, Work & Play in Beautiful Santa Cruz County!

We're seeking multi-talented Planner professionals to join our Santa Cruz team.

Planner II, Journey Level: $6,037 - 7,642 / Month

Planner III, Senior/Advanced Journey Level: $6,654 - 8,424 / Month

Planner IV, Subject Area Expert: $7,720 - 9,765 / Month

You Come With:

- Thorough knowledge of the principles, practices and trends of public planning
- An understanding of statistical research methods as applied to the collection and tabulation of data affecting public planning
- The principles and techniques of gathering and analyzing data
- Basic statistical methods and procedures used in planning studies
- Long range and regulatory planning practices
- Knowledge of laws and regulations related to planning, zoning and environmental protection

We offer:

- Various robust benefit plans with the County contributing generously toward the total cost of the plans
- CalPERS retirement and Social Security
- Generous vacation, sick and holiday leave pay
- The opportunity to work, live and play in beautiful Santa Cruz!

County of Santa Cruz Personnel Mission Statement: In collaboration with our customers, we will recruit, develop, support, and retain an ethical, professional, and diverse

County of Santa Cruz - Planner Series workforce dedicated to serving the community.

To learn more about these exciting opportunities, please go to:
www.santacruzcountyjobs.com