

NOVEMBER MEETING

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

TOPIC: Transfer of Development Rights/Credits

DATE: Wednesday, November 17, 1982

TIME: 7:00 - 9:00pm

LOCATION: EDAW
1725 Montgomery Street, 2nd Floor
(between Francisco and Chestnut)
San Francisco

PANELISTS: Peter Broy, Senior Planner, Los Angeles City Planning
Department - case study of Century City Specific Plan

George Williams, Assistant Director, San Francisco City
Planning Department - case study of downtown San Francisco

Mark Riesenseld, Chief Planner, Marin County Planning
Department - case study of Marin County.

The transfer of development rights and credits (TDR/TDC) has been used to protect coastal land, farmland and historic buildings. The concept has even been used to mitigate traffic congestion in downtown areas.

PRICE: $5.00 per person. Payable at door.

RSVP: Mr. Chi-Hsin Shao
San Francisco Department of City Planning
415/558-5423
By Friday, November 12.

SEMINAR ON GARBAGE TO BE HELD IN SAN JOSE

The California State Solid Waste Management Board and the California State Universities will present a seminar on "Coping With California's Solid Waste Crisis." The seminar will be offered December 9 and 10 at San Jose State University.

Registration fee for the day-and-a-half seminar is $20. Registration will include lunch refreshments at breaks, and a manual to serve as text for the seminar. Further information and registration materials can be obtained by writing Sara Weber at the Office of Continuing Education, Cal Poly University, 3801 West Temple Avenue, Pomona, CA, 91768, or by phoning Ms. Weber at (714) 598-4935.

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Election results: with a 1.7 percent turnout of section members, Myrna Valdez has been reelected as section Director, Alyse Jacobson as Director Pro Tem, and Joan Lamphier as Secretary-Treasurer. The matriarchy continues.

Coming up in the next newsletter: articles on inclusionary zoning, the AIA Regional/Urban Design Assistance Team plan recently completed for Healdsburg, and sundry items of general interest
